ARIN CHANG

Arin Chang, 17, is a senior at Saratoga High School currently studying violin with Zhao Wei. He has also worked with acclaimed artists Haik Kazazyan, Martin Chalifour, Fang Lei, Bing Wang, Yuri Mazurkevich, as well as members of the Delphi Trio, Lee Trio, Telegraph Quartet, St. Lawrence String Quartet, and Alexander String Quartet. His awards include winning the KAMSA Young Artist Competition, first place in the Silicon Valley Youth Music Competition, first place in the VOCE Junior Strings Competition, and top awards in the DVC/HNU Young Artist Competition, Peninsula Symphony Orchestra Young Musicians Competition, American Protégé International Concerto Competition, US International Music Competition, and US Open Music Competition. He has also been a finalist at the California Youth Symphony Young Artist Competition. Twice, Arin was invited to perform at the prestigious Junior Bach Festival and performed in Carnegie Hall as a winner of the 2016 American Fine Arts Festival. In 2017, Arin made his solo debut with the Saratoga Symphony Orchestra as a winner of its annual concerto competition. For the past two years, he has been a part of Young Chamber Musicians with Music at Kohl Mansion, and won second prize at the 2018 Galante Chamber Music Competition as the violinist of Trio Sonoro. He was also a member of the 2016 All National Honor Symphony Orchestra.

In the past, Arin has had the opportunity to tour with his school orchestra to Belgium, Germany, and the Netherlands, appearing as a soloist in venues such as the Amsterdam Concertgebouw. In the summer of 2017, he attended Tanglewood Institute's violin workshop. Arin is also an officer of Tri-M Music Honors Society at Saratoga High and mentors in the MESH program. Besides music, Arin loves writing poetry, watching movies, and exploring new places. Arin would like to thank his teachers, parents, and friends for their unconditional support of his music endeavors, and especially Mr. Boitz for making this opportunity possible.
