After dinner, return to the Philharmonie and change into performance attire.

EVERYONE

8:00pm PERFORMANCE (Symphonic Wind Ensemble / Symphony Orchestra) at the Berliner Philharmonie – this concert will be shared with the Junge Philharmonie Reinickendorf.

Home of the celebrated Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, the Berliner Philharmonie is one of the first and still among the finest modern concert halls constructed. Inaugurated in 1963 with a performance of Beethoven's 9th Symphony under the direction of Herbert van Karajan, the Philharmonie was designed in a "vineyard" style by the renowned architect, Hans Scharoun so that every one of the 2,440 seats feel close to the stage. Today, this remarkable hall with its stunning acoustics and architecture is a "cathedral" to classical music and every major orchestra's and artist's dream to perform in.

Berliner Philharmonie

Following the concert, pack up and return to respective hotels – evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

EVERYONE

7:30pm PERFORMANCE (Choir) at the Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church – this concert will be shared with the Jugendchor der Deutschen Oper.

Originally built in the 1890's, the Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church (Kaiser-Wilhelm-Gedächtniskirche) was heavily damaged in WW II. From 1959-1963, the current modern church was rebuilt, however, the original damaged spire/belfry was retained as a memorial and a reminder of the horrors of war. Today, the stunning modern church is a famous landmark of Berlin with an active congregation. The church hosts numerous concerts and is well-known for its excellent choral acoustics.

Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church

Choir – Following the concert, enjoy social time with the Jugendchor der Deutschen Oper.

Return to respective hotels – evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

DAY SIX: Friday, June 26, 2020 – BERLIN → LEIPZIG → DRESDEN (B, snack) – Performance (Choir)

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
 Check-out of hotels and load the equipment truck and coaches – depart for Leipzig (~2.5-hour drive).
 Arrive into Leipzig.

More than any other city in former East Germany (except Berlin, of course), Leipzig brings you into the Germany of today. This once dreary city has taken on a new life and vitality. In addition to a booming rock scene, Leipzig is also famous for more traditional music. Johann Sebastian Bach is closely associated with Leipzig, Mozart and Mendelssohn performed here, and Wagner was born here in 1813.

Enjoy a guided tour of Leipzig – see highlights such as the Völkerschlachtdenkmal (monument to Napoleon's defeat in Leipzig in 1813), the famous Gewandhaus Concert Hall, and St. Thomas's Church.

The tour will being or conclude with a visit to the Bach Museum housed in the historic Bose House which presents the life and work of Johann Sebastian Bach in an interactive exhibition.

Afternoon Lunch on own.

Enjoy time to explore Leipzig's charming city center in approved groups.

Note: it is recommended travelers visit a local market or take-away location to purchase snacks for the ride to Dresden after the concert.

Late Afternoon Choir – Transfer to St. Nicholas Church.

Choir – After dinner, return to the St. Nicholas Church and change into performance attire.

7:30pm PERFORMANCE (Choir) at the St. Nicholas Church in Leipzig – shared with the Konzertchores des Rutheneum, Gera.

One of the most prominent churches in Leipzig, St. Nicholas Church (Nikolaikirche) was originally built in the 12th century in Romanesque-style but enlarged in the 16th century in Gothic-style before having Baroque elements (including the main tower) added in the 18th century. J.S Bach was Kapellmeister for St. Nicolas Church (as well as nearby St. Thomas) from 1723 until his death in 1750 – many of Bach's most important works including his Cantatas and St. Matthew's Passion were performed at St. Nicholas Church under Bach's tutelage.

Upon arrival, check-in to the hotels (SWE/SSO at the NH Hotel Altmarkt / Choir at the Starr Inn / Shadow at the Innside Hotel Dresden) and settle into rooms.

A snack will be provided upon arrival at the hotels.

The evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

DAY SEVEN: Saturday, June 27, 2020 – DRESDEN (B,D)

Note: As all hotels are within walking distance of Dresden sites and performance venue, access to coaches will not be available for June 27 and June 28.

Morning

Breakfast as a group at the hotel.

This morning, enjoy a guided walking tour of Dresden – see highlights such as the Zwinger Palace, Frauenkirche, and the Semperoper.

Founded in 1206, Dresden was the home of Saxon princes and kings for generations. Under Augustus the Strong and his son Augustus III, Dresden became one of the most beautiful cities in Europe famous for its baroque and rococo architecture earning the nickname “Florence of the North”. In February 1945 during WW II, Dresden was firebombed by the Allies and more than 60% of the city burned to the ground. During the Cold War, Dresden was neglected by the East German authorities, however, since reunification, much of Dresden has been rebuilt and restored to its former glory and once again has taken its place as one of Germany’s most beautiful and vibrant cities.

Zwinger Palace – Dresden

Afternoon

Lunch on own in Dresden.

The afternoon is free to explore Dresden in approved groups – possible activities could include (all costs on own):

DAY EIGHT: Sunday, June 28, 2020 – DRESDEN (B) – Performance (SWE / SSO)

Note: As all hotels are within walking distance of Dresden sites and performance venue, access to coaches will not be available for June 27 and June 28.

Morning	Breakfast as a group at the hotel. Enjoy time to explore Dresden (see Day 7 for possible activities) and/or enjoy a well-deserved late-morning.
Afternoon	Lunch on own in Dresden. Choir / Shadow Tour – Enjoy time to further explore Dresden. Symphonic Wind Ensemble / Symphony Orchestra – Collect instruments and performance attire and walk to the Kulturpalast.
2:30pm-4:20pm	Symphonic Wind Ensemble / Symphony Orchestra – Rehearsal / Soundcheck at the Kulturpalast then change into performance attire.
Late Afternoon 6:00pm	Early dinner on own in Dresden (or get a snack and have dinner post-concert). PERFORMANCE (Symphonic Wind Ensemble / Symphony Orchestra) at the Kulturpalast – this concert will be shared with the Symphonic Wind Orchestra from the Heinrich-Schütz-Konservatorium.
Evening	After the concert, walk back to respective hotels. Time to get a snack (or dinner on own) and evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

Opened in 1969 during the communist era, the Kulturpalast was originally intended as a venue for conferences, dances, and entertainment events. In 2013, the building was closed for an extensive renovation and re-opened in 2017 as a dedicated concert hall. The “vineyard”-style concert hall has earned rave reviews and is home to the Dresden Philharmonic.

11:00am Return to the Curhaus at St. Stephen's Cathedral and prepare for concert
 12:45pm-1:15pm PERFORMANCE (Choir) at St. Stephen's Cathedral.

Rebuilt on the ruins of a previous church in the 14th century in high Gothic-Style, St. Stephen's Cathedral (Stephansdom) has borne witness to many important events in Habsburg and Austrian history and has, with its multi-colored tile roof, become one of the city's most recognizable symbols. St. Stephen's has also been at the heart of the musical life in Vienna – among many highlights, Mozart performed in the church and his funeral was held there as well. Today, the church is at the center of Vienna's (and Austria's) religious and musical life.

After the concert, Choir to change clothes and store on the bus.

St. Stephen's Cathedral
