(itinerary details are subject to change)

As of May 22, 2019

Note: Due to group size, group may be split between several hotels in each location

DAY ONE: Sunday, June 21, 2020 – SAN FRANCISCO Departure

Time TBD Arrive at Saratoga High School. Board coaches and transfer to SFO.
 Arrive at San Francisco International Airport at least 3 hours prior to departure – meet your World Projects Tour Managers who will assist with check in and travel with you throughout the tour.
 After checking in your luggage and instruments, move through security to the departure gate.
 Depart for Berlin – there will be a change of plane en route.

Due to the size of the group, Saratoga HS will be split between several flights and/or several airlines.

DAY TWO: Monday, June 22, 2020 – Arrive BERLIN (D)

Time TBD Arrive into Berlin's Tegel International Airport.

In the quarter-century-plus since the Wall came tumbling down, Berlin has re-established itself as Germany's capital and gone through an urban and social transformation that has made it, once again, one of the most exciting cities in Europe. Superlative museums, grand (and grandiose) monuments, a performing arts scene that has no equal in Germany, fascinating neighborhoods to explore, fabulous parks and green spaces to enjoy, cafes, shopping, elegant restaurants and on-the-go street food—Berlin truly does have something for everyone.

Pass through immigration, collect your luggage, and proceed with customs formalities. You will be met by your local Tour Escorts who will travel with you throughout the tour.
 Transfer to hotel(s) – upon arrival, check-into the hotel(s) – time to settle into your rooms.

Evening

Welcome dinner as a group then return to the hotels.
 The evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

EVERYONE

PERFORMANCE (Symphonic Wind Ensemble / Symphony Orchestra) at the Berliner Philharmonie.

Home of the celebrated Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, the Berliner Philharmonie is one of the first and still among the finest modern concert halls constructed. Inaugurated in 1963 with a performance of Beethoven's 9th Symphony under the direction of Herbert van Karajan, the Philharmonie was designed in a "vineyard" style by the renowned architect, Hans Scharoun so that every one of the 2,440 seats feel close to the stage. Today, this remarkable hall with its stunning acoustics and architecture is a "cathedral" to classical music and every major orchestra's and artist's dream to perform in.

Following the concert, pack up and return to the hotel – evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

Berliner Philharmonie

DAY FIVE: Thursday, June 25, 2020 – BERLIN (B) – Performance (Choir)

DAY SIX: Friday, June 26, 2020 – BERLIN → LEIPZIG → DRESDEN (B) – Performance (Choir)

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
Check-out of the hotel(s) and load the equipment truck and coaches – depart for Leipzig (~2.5 hour drive).
Arrive into Leipzig.

More than any other city in former East Germany (except Berlin, of course), Leipzig brings you into the Germany of today. This once dreary city has taken on a new life and vitality. In addition to a booming rock scene, Leipzig is also famous for more traditional music. Johann Sebastian Bach is closely associated with Leipzig, Mozart and Mendelssohn performed here, and Wagner was born here in 1813.

Bach Statue – Leipzig

Enjoy a guided tour of Leipzig – see highlights such as the Völkerschlachtdenkmal (monument to Napoleon's defeat in Leipzig in 1813), the famous Gewandhaus Concert Hall, and St. Thomas's Church.

The tour will conclude with a visit the Bach Museum housed in the historic Bose House which presents the life and work of Johann Sebastian Bach in an interactive exhibition.

Afternoon Lunch on own.

Enjoy time to explore Leipzig's charming city center in approved groups.

Late Afternoon Choir – Transfer to the St. Nicholas Church.

Choir – Rehearsal / Soundcheck at St. Nicholas Church.

Evening Dinner on your own in Leipzig (everyone).

Choir – After dinner, return to the St. Nicholas Church and change into performance attire.

PERFORMANCE (Choir) at the St. Nicholas Church in Leipzig.

One of the most prominent churches in Leipzig, the St. Nicholas Church (Nikolaikirche) was originally built in the 12th century in Romanesque-style but enlarged in the 16th century in Gothic-style before having Baroque elements (including the main tower) added in the 18th century. J.S Bach was Kapellmeister for St. Nicolas Church (as well as nearby St. Thomas) from 1723 until his death in 1750 – many of Bach's most important works including his Cantatas and St. Matthew's Passion were performed at St. Nicholas Church under Bach's tutelage.

After the concert, pack-up and depart for Dresden (~1.5 hour drive). Upon arrival, check-in to the hotel(s) and settle into rooms – evening is free until curfew/lights-out (students).

St. Nicholas Church – Leipzig

DAY SEVEN: Saturday, June 27, 2020 – DRESDEN (B)

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
 This morning, enjoy a guided tour of Dresden – see highlights such as the Zwinger Palace, Frauenkirche, and the Semperoper.

Founded in 1206, Dresden was the home of Saxon princes and kings for generations. Under Augustus the Strong and his son Augustus III, Dresden became one of the most beautiful cities in Europe famous for its baroque and rococo architecture earning the nickname “Florence of the North”. In February 1945 during WW II, Dresden was firebombed by the Allies and more than 60% of the city burned to the ground. During the Cold War, Dresden was neglected by the East German authorities, however, since reunification, much of Dresden has been rebuilt and restored to its former glory and once again has taken its place as one of Germany’s most beautiful and vibrant cities.

Zwinger Palace – Dresden

Afternoon Lunch on own in Dresden.
 The afternoon is free to explore Dresden in approved groups – possible activities could include (all costs on own):

- Wander the restored streets of Old Town with its stunning baroque architecture
- Take a tour of the famous Semperoper
